

Virtual Multiple Perspectives Conference

Ohio State University

Columbus, Ohio

April 6-7, 2020

Think College is a national organization dedicated to developing, expanding, and improving inclusive higher education options for people with intellectual disability. The Multiple Perspectives Conference provides opportunities for students, parents and professionals to explore the intersection of disability and inclusive communities, a conversation including many voices and reflecting perspectives gained through experience and research; theory and practice; and the arts and sciences. Find out more about the benefits of attending college by registering for the 2020 conference.
